About the artist

Michael Alford is a prize-winning artist who has exhibited widely in Britain, Europe and America. His works decorate many notable hotels, restaurants, public spaces and private homes in Britain, America, Europe, Asia and the Middle East. He has exhibited with leading galleries including the San Francisco

Museum of Modern Art, The Chatto Gallery, London, and Collins & Hastie, London. He's held solo exhibitions at the Duncan Campbell Gallery, London (2004, 2006, and 2007) and the Neville Gallery, Canterbury (2006).

He was awarded the Agnes Reeve Memorial Prize in 2000, the Primaluce International Mural Festival Prize (Lodi, Italy) in 2003, and the Green & Stone Oil Painting Prize in 2005.

About the print

Limited edition of 500 giclee prints 22" by 13½" at £98 each (inc VAT and UK p&p) printed on "Bamboo" 290gsm paper. Made from renewable resources, this paper has a warm tone and its smooth surface shows the painter's original mark making.

There is also a special facsimile edition of 25 varnished canvas prints 30" by 18" on premium kiln-dried pine stretcher bars at £500 each (inc VAT and UK p&p). These are printed on 340gsm matt artists' cotton canvas with a high quality texture and a natural white tone. The result is virtually indistinguishable from the original oil painting.

All profits will be credited to The Colonel's Fund, a sub-unit of The Relief in Need Charity which forms part of The Regimental and Battalion Charities of the Grenadier Guards, Registered Charity no.1062257.
